

Connect With Nature And Explore Your Creativity

Midnight Farm allows individuals with disabilities to work, learn, and grow in the natural beauty of a rural, 40-acre farm setting in Douglas County, KS.

Programs at Midnight Farm teach life, social, and job skills through hands-on activities like animal care, gardening, pottery, printmaking, cooking, musical theater, exercise classes, and more.

"Midnight Farm is a great place; it has very caring people and is an all around nice and calming place to be!"

- D. Marie
