

Who is GoodLife?

GoodLife is a national leader in the creation of innovative, enriching, and cost-effective service and support models. Since 1977, our mission has been to make a meaningful difference in the lives of those with intellectual or developmental disabilities and their families.

We provide a full spectrum of community-based supports across the lifespan of need, developed and supported by our ongoing partnership with the University of Kansas Department of Applied Behavioral Sciences.

A life of dignity and independence is possible, no matter the challenge. We pair innovative home care services with technology to support our residents' independence.

I'm so happy! This is my home and my family now. I love living here because I get to learn new things and make new friends."
